CASTING CALL:

Geva Theatre Center announces auditions for 2022-23 Season

Rochester, N.Y. — New Geva Artistic Director Elizabeth Williamson has announced in-person general auditions for the theatre's 2022-23 Season for both Equity and non-Equity adult actors on Monday, June 13 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 to 6 p.m.

Equity actors may make an audition appointment by calling 585-232-1366. Non-Equity actors will be seen on a walk-in basis.

Actors should prepare either: two brief contrasting monologues totaling no more than three minutes or a brief monologue and a brief song totaling no more than three minutes. An accompanist will be provided.

Auditions will take place at Geva Theatre Center, 75 Woodbury Boulevard, Rochester, New York 14607. Actors should buzz into the administrative entrance on Clinton Avenue and walk up to reception on the second floor.

All auditioning actors must bring a résumé, headshot, and proof of vaccination. Masking is also required. Two-ply cloth face masks, surgical masks, singer's masks, and respirators (N95, KN95, or KF94) are acceptable. Single-ply face masks, gaiters, and bandanas are not permitted.

About Geva Theatre Center

Geva Theatre Center is a nonprofit, professional theatre company in downtown Rochester, New York, offering world-class productions and extensive additional programming. Founded in 1972, Geva is the most well-attended regional theatre in New York State with one of the 25 largest subscription bases among regional theatres in the country. Geva serves as many as 160,000 patrons annually, including more than 20,000 students.

Geva's 517-seat Wilson Stage and 180-seat Fielding Stage each offer a wide-ranging collection of drama, comedy and musical theatre, from classics to world premieres. The company also offers a broad slate of educational, outreach and literary programming to enrich audiences, students and artists of all ages and disciplines. Since 1995, Geva has been under the artistic direction of Mark Cuddy.

Geva Theatre Center sits on the ancestral and unceded territory of the Onöndowa'ga, or "the people of the Great Hill." In English, they are known as the Seneca people, "the keeper of the western door." They have stewarded this land through generations, and Geva pays respect and gives thanks to their elders, past and present.
