A CHRISTMAS CAROL: TINY TIM OUTREACH

Geva Theatre is seeking local disabled actors ages 8-13 for a new play adaptation of A Christmas Carol, written by Harrison David Rivers and directed by Elizabeth Williamson. This exciting and new adaptation reexamines the role Tiny Tim has played in A Christmas Carol, centering his narrative as he holds Scrooge's fate in his hands.

For this production, Geva Theatre is committed to casting a disabled actor for this role. We highly encourage children of all disabilities, both visible & invisible, to audition for this role. If this description fits your child, we would love to welcome them to this production. Please see the audition and production details below.

ROLE SEEKING

TIM - Any Ethnicity, Male-identifying, child. Perceptive and older than his years. Pleasant singing voice. Physically disabled.

HOW TO SIGN UP

If you are interested in signing up your kid(s) for A Christmas Carol auditions, please email Jasmine B. Gunter at casting@gevatheatre.org to make an audition appointment.

HOW TO PREPARE

Your kid(s) will read a small cut of the play, provided to them during the auditions. Afterward, your kid(s) will be asked to sing a Christmas carol of their choice. If they don't know any Christmas carols, they can always sing Happy Birthday.
